

Represent a right circular cone in frontal axonometry. Cut the cone by a plane perpendicular to the plane $[x,z]$ and laying on n_{1par} such that the curve of intersection should be a parabola. Show the visibility of the cone surface below the plane.

