

Represent the torus given by its axis t , center of its principal circle O'' and radius of this circle r . Construct the second image of the point P such that the point is on the upper hyperbolic part of the torus. Intersect the torus with the tangent plane at P . Remove the upper part, show the visibility.

